Discount Planned for Early Tax Payment

Residents of the community will be given the opportunity of a financial advantage by early payment of taxes if Bylaw No. 431 (now awaiting third reading by Council) receives final endorsement at the next meeting.

The bylaw will provide for a discount of eight percent for taxes paid between January 1st and March 31st and a discount of 5 percent for those paid between April 1st and June 30th.

A penalty of one percent will be effective during August, two percent in September, three percent in October, four percent in November and five percent in December. After December 31st a penalty rate of eight percent will be imposed and added in each succeeding year as long as the taxes remain unpaid.

Municipal councils are empowered to allow discounts and impose penalties under the Municipal Taxation Act, 1967 and the move by Drayton Valley Council was undertaken in an effort to obtain tax money earlier in the year and avoid the necessity of borrowing to operate the town while taxes trickle in.

The bylaw received two readings at a meeting of Town Council Thursday, December 12th and if the third reading is carried at the next meeting Thursday, December 19th, will come into force on January 1st, 1969.

COUNCIL BRIEFS

At the regular meeting of Town Council a request from the Alberta Tourist Association for an advisory board for the Drayton Valley area was discussed and turned over to the Development Committee Chairman. Council suggested the consideration by the committee of an outline of the area most suitable to be considered as a unit for tourist promotion.

Third readings were given to Bylaws 429 and 430 authorizing the sale of lots to John Tyler and John Zelenak.

Councillor Mary Burrows reported on the recent meeting with Dr. Watt on the Health Unit Services Program as outlined in Bill 87. Town Council has expressed support for the Dr. Ball Report on Health Unit boundaries which would have placed Drayton Valley in conjunction with an area to the east. Mrs. Burrows suggested in her report that the Ball Report, commissioned by the Provincial Government, was not likely to be accepted in the final division of Health Unit boundaries. It is

REBELS LEAD LEAGUE

The Rebels have been playing outstanding hockey and are the league leaders with 6 wins and two losses. This success is attributed to confidence and high team spirit. All the players are hustling and have earned respect from their opposition as a top team for they have won many come from behind victories. They have also defeated each team in the league at least once so there is no individual team they are having difficulty with.

There has been much hockey action since the last newspaper report. Four games have been played and the Rebels won both games of a double header against Fort Saskatchewan at the Fort on the weekend of December 7th and 8th. The score in Saturday's game was 5 - 3 with Frank Novacel getting 2, Wayne Garding 2 and Al Mattoon with 1. Sunday's score was 6 - 3 with Al Hopfe getting 2 goals and singles going to Don Borne, Rod Colbert, Ron Hemmingway and Frank Novacel. Reports have come back that many Fort Saskatchewan fans were supporting the Rebels team on Sunday and cheering them on to carry out a repeat of Saturday night. Ken Machan and Dave Boulter played outstanding hockey on defence for the Rebels.

Then on Tuesday, December 12th the Rebels hosted the Wetaskiwin Colonels and defeated them 5 - 4 in overtime. Dan Davie getting the winner at 7:25 of the overtime period. The first period started slowly and neither team managed to score. In the second period the Rebels gained momentum and carried the play to Wetaskiwin scoring 3 goals. Jim Dunn scored first with Frank Novacel and Barry Solnes drawing assists. Then Gary Pankewicz scored a neat goal unassisted. Frank Novacel scored the third goal with Jim Dunn and Dave Boulter assisting.

Schaefer scored for the Colonels to close out the scoring in the second period. The Colonels showed their ability to come back from a 3 - 1 deficit to score 3 more unanswered goals to go ahead 4 - 3 in the third period. Dave Boulter brought the fans to their feet when he scored the tying goal unassisted at the 16.32 mark drilling a hard shot just from inside the blue line.

The overtime period was highlighted by Dan Davie who had been skating, checking and carrying the puck well throughout the game scored the winner from Barry Ness and Ron Hemmingway. For his efforts he was awarded first star, second to Jim Dunn and third star to Jim Young of Wetaskiwin.

Then on Thursday, December 12th the Rebels played in Camrose and came away with another victory 4 - 3. The Maroons went ahead 2 - 0 in the first period on goals by McLean and Freohler. The Rebels tied it up in the second period with Ron Hemmingway and Frank Novacel notching markers. Dan Davie scored the Rebel 3rd goal in the third period only to have Wilhawk tie it all up again a minute and 13 seconds later. Then Jim Dunn scored the winning goal at the 10:37 mark.

Rod Colbert drew assists for Novacels and Davie's goals. Morley Moger played an outstanding game in the nets for Drayton Valley to help defeat the Maroons.

There is plenty of hockey action for the Rebels between now and the next edition of The Western Review. They will play in Stettler in a weekend double header on December 21st and 22nd. Then they host Fort Saskatchewan for 2 games on Saturday, December 28th and Sunday, December 29th. Their next game is also at home against Wetaskiwin on Tuesday, January 7th. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these home games and support the Rebels in their fine efforts as they do play a very entertaining brand of hockey.

more likely, she suggested, that this area will continue as a part of the Edson Unit.

Marvin Helm, Personnel Committee Chairman reported on a meeting to discuss Accident, Sickness, Life and Health Insurance Plan for Town employees. The plan proposed by S.C. Lunan, representing Manufacturer's Life, for coverage of town employees at $25.97 per month was discussed and approved by Council. Employees and the town will each contribute 50 percent of the cost of the plan.

Council named Mr. Alex Zubot as school representative on the new County of Stony Plain committee until elections are held for the board.

Grants to town churches of up to $275 for 1968 were authorized as was a grant of $275 to the Scout Hall and $100 to the Elks Hall.

The new licensing bylaw was discussed and referred back to the committee of the whole for further study before and readings are given.

Bylaw No. 434 authorizing the borrowing of $200,000 for current expenditures in 1969, secured by the 1969 tax levy, was given first reading.

Council authorized that sale of buildings on Lot 2, Block 29, to O.H. Bowen for $10.00 with the understanding that the lot be left clean after removal of buildings.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Another Year Closing

Now in its final days, the year 1968 has been good for Drayton Valley. The year has seen continued progress, new businesses established and improvements to those already in existence. Steady, unspectacular progress that indicates permanence and stability in a community on the move.

The year will close with one of man's most spectacular journeys of discovery - the lunar flight at Christmas. Strange indeed that 1968 sees mankind on the verge of conquest of space but still unable to solve the problems that wrack the earth.

Canadians should look forward to the possibility that 1969 (with less interference from outside sources) might hold the opportunity to solve the major problems facing our country. National unity can be achieved and a start could be made by following the suggestion of Lieutenant Governor Grant MacEwan and all Canadians making an effort to visit and learn more about those in different parts of the country.

A series of brief meditations for the readers of The Western Review prepared by the clergy of the Drayton Valley Ministerial Association

Asleep in the Boat

BY REV. R. E. KEMP

Many years ago at Niagara Falls, a young man was employed as a guide. Having nothing to do one day, he moored his boat well above the falls, and lay down in it to rest. Rocked on the bosom of the ever-moving waters, he fell asleep. The boat was not tied as securely as he thought, for the constant swaying finally loosened the knot. With the unconscious occupant, it began to drift with the current.

People on the shore, seeing his grave danger, shouted in an attempt to waken him. The current at this point was not so swift that he could not save himself. They called in vain.

Suddenly the boat caught on a rock that protruded in mid-stream. The by-standers redoubled their efforts to arouse the slumbering man. They cried at the top of their voices, "Get on the rock! Get on the rock!". He slept on, completely oblivious to the attempts being made to rescue him from his extreme peril.

Soon the swift-moving waters carried the boat away from the safety of the rock. It was heading for the falls! The poor man was aroused from his sleep by the thundering roar of Niagara - too late! He plunged over the edge to his death.

How appalling! Calmly and unconsciously drifting into the very jaws of death! One trembles to think of it. Yet, how vividly this illustrates the indifference of souls today! So many unconcerned about the fatal course they are following. Fast asleep in their sins! They are lulled into a sense of security on the tide of earthly pleasures; soothed into false confidence by their dependence on a blameless life or religious profession.

Is your pastor crying out in vain the message of salvation? Does he have to stand helplessly by while you drift into eternity without committing your life to the Saviour? Wake up! Get out of the fatal craft! Step to safety on the Rock Jesus Christ! "The god of this world (Satan) hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them" (2 Cor. 4:4)

"Awake thou that sleepest" - (Eph. 5:14).

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved" - (Acts 16:31).

No one should try to do two things at once, and this includes women who put on weight and slacks at the same time!

Letters to the Editor

Edmonton, Alberta

Western Review,
Drayton Valley.

I would like to commend the editorial in the November 13th edition of the Drayton Valley Western Review headed "Building a Good Future", which you wrote after attending a number of 4-H award events and banquets.

In particular, I note the tribute paid to the program and its leaders: "we have become increasingly aware of the importance of 4-H and the many fine qualities being instilled in rural young people by dedicated leaders."

It is encouraging to young people, to leaders of youth programs in general and to my own staff in the Youth Department to read editorials pointing out the many fine things young people do. Too often the accomplishments and generous acts of the young go unnoticed because they lack a "controversial news" element.

There is no better example of the positive attitudes and constructive activities of young people than in the 4-H program. We are proud to be associated with more than 9,000 4-H club members and some 1,800 voluntary leaders in Alberta. I am sure I speak for them when I say how greatly we appreciate your editorial tribute to the 4-H program, its youthful members and dedicated leaders.

Yours sincerely,

R.C. Clark,
Minister of Youth.

Gifts at Christmas

The gift of a fire-safe home at Christmas is a timely thought, because without extra care, the chances of fire are increased with Christmas hurry and Christmas festivities. To achieve the gift of a fire-safe home calls for certain definite preventative action by everyone. The usual precautions are:

Care with Christmas trees and decorations such as keeping the tree moist (standing in water) and by the use of approved strings of Christmas lights and flame-proof decorations.

Special attention to the hazard of smoking due to the presence of paper wrappings in the home and at stores and extra alertness to check around the premises after parties to make sure all cigarettes are out.

Extra supervision in public buildings to guarantee that exits are clear, that overcrowding is prevented and that any unusual hazards are neutralized by extra hand fire protection equipment.

Last December 25th there were 27 fires in Alberta, 24 in residential property and three in vehicles. Of the known causes, 13 fires were from smokers' carelessness and other causes reported were short circuits, sparks from fire-places, sparking toys and candles.

MAGNOLIA NEWS

MRS. W.E. CAMPBELL
Correspondent

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson celebrated Mr. Anderson's birthday with a family supper this past week. All the children and grandchildren, with the exception of Gene Campbell, who is still studying at OAVC, were present. A delicious supper and pleasant evening were enjoyed by all.

Ronnie Brown, who spent his early life in Magnolia, and is now with the Canadian Armed Forces, was recently promoted to the rank of Sergeant. His family joined him a short time ago at North Bay, Ontario, his present station. Previously, they had been in Kamloops, his last base.

Connie Anderson celebrated her birthday on December 5th. A belated happy birthday wish is extended to her.

Dean Manchester is reported to be progressing favorably, but must remain in hospital for one more week.

Ohris and Dorothy McWillis enjoyed a one day visit from their daughter Vivian and granddaughter Virginia. Lonzo McWillis and family were also out from Edmonton.

We hope Fort McMurray will be a happy home for Liz and Andy Kmyta and their three children. The move from Edmonton was made in conjunction with Andy's work.

The McCrackens had a very pleasant Sunday evening visit with Grant and Stella MacDougall of Mayerthorpe.

Mrs. Jenny MacLeod of Lake Isle spent a day in Magnolia and points west this past week.

Weekend visitors at the Gyl-ander home were Bill and Olive Clarke and family of Edmonton and Jim and Dorothy Gylander of Leduc. Eleanor was also home. Dave and Marive brought their children from Entwistle to participate in a skating party with the other children.

A little surprise was held on December 6th for Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Smith when they were presented with a patchwork quilt and a cushion made by the local ladies. Each lady who gave material for the quilt has her name in a block on the cover. Several ladies motored to Entwistle to present it to the Smiths who are reported delighted with the gift.

Mr. Rudolph Gylander left this weekend to finish the last week of his holiday. He went to Arizona where he will visit with relatives.

The local children gathered at the hall on Saturday, December 7th to practice for the Christmas concert. Our hard-working captain is Betty Strangway, with Joyce Manchester as first mate.

Search for Talent Here on January 18

Second Search for Talent Show of the New Year will be held at Drayton Valley on Saturday, January 18th, under sponsorship of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Drayton Valley Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion. Mrs. Helen Wardlow is the co-ordinator of the project for the local sponsors, and she advises that plans are progressing favorably and that after a year's absence, the interest is mounting on all sides.

Registration of contestants is now underway with contestants signing in at the Simpsons Sears Store. With the total number of entries in all five categories limited to twenty, Mrs. Wardlow urges those planning to compete to register as soon as possible.

Contestants can participate in five categories with first and second place winners receiving trophies donated by Edmonton business firms. First place winners will represent Drayton Valley at the regional semifinals in April. The five competitions are the Sunwapta Primary, Country and Western, Showmanship, Modern and Pop, and the Junior.

Supplementing the competition on stage will be a fast moving variety show featuring prominent radio and television entertainers from Edmonton. Heading the troupe will be Frank Hockaday, ventriloquist and his "dummy" Willie McQuire; and the Western Ramblers Trio consisting of Earl Morin, Stan Berghelm and Ed Halmila.

The show will be held in the auditorium of the Frank Mad-dock School commencing at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, January 18th. A portion of the proceeds from the advance sale of "pull tickets" will be retained by the sponsoring group.

Balance of the proceeds go to the Northern Alberta Crippled Children's Fund project of the Associated Canadian Travellers of Edmonton.

WARRIORS POST TWIN VICTORIES

This past week the FMHS Warriors come up with two decisive victories. The first was an exhibition win over Seba Beach 112-21, the other a league opening victory over Breton 94-32. Doug Ibbotson led the team on the scoreboard in each game with 35 points and 39 points respectively. Doug now has an average 27 points per game average over the first six outings of the Warriors. The "Rookie" Larry Mattoon continues to have great success scoring a total of 30 points in the two contests. The "veteran" Keith Sodergren also contributed 30 points in the two contests.

Ken (Wilt) Dusterhofs, the tall member of the team who joined the Warriors from the Tomahawk juniors last season, showed a definite move toward his potential this past week as he hit for 22 points in the above two contests and assisted in many more.

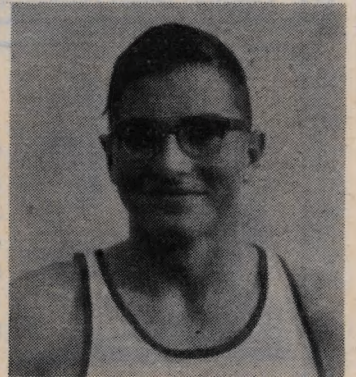

In the first six games of the season the Warrior defence has allowed the opposition an average of only 23 points per game - this has been due to the fabulous backboard work of Ron Cameron and Terry Jevne.

The Warrior depth is exemplified by the excellent season work of Don Bouschard, Charles Swap and Stan Oulton. Joining the team in the Breton game was Jerry Mastre who comes to the team with no junior experience but with great natural ability. He is going to add color and more offensive power to the local club and he should prove to

EXERPTS FROM CONSUMER BULLETIN
The Canadian Consumer has some interesting facts about advertising.

General Motors, Procter & Gamble and General Foods were the top three spenders with $9 million, $6½ million and $5½ million respectively.

You and I pay for this advertising. When you consider how annoying a good deal of the advertising is, it makes a person wonder.

Total advertising expenditure in 1967 was $904 million which means that every person in Canada spent $44 for advertising.

Arthur Child, president of Burns, tells about bacon grades.

All meat packers grade bacon, first, second and sometimes third grades. But the catch is they don't call it that. They have names for each grade such as "Shamrock" and "Premium".

It would make it much simpler
if it were designated first, second and third.

Product labelling leaves much to be desired in Canada. Standard grading would be a real improvement. Canned goods are another example. What does Canada Standard, Choice and Fancy mean to you?

You can make your views known to the Federal Department of Consumer Affairs by writing to

Farm Situation And Outlook

Canada Department of Agriculture economists say that farmers' total cash receipts declined in 1968 while operating expenses increased.

And farmers will likely end this year with lower profits than last year.

Next year total cash receipts will likely increase, but expenses will increase even faster, resulting in another year of declining profits say the economists.

This year farmers spent 13 percent more for pest control and a similar increase is forecast for 1969.

The demand for crop insurance appears to be increasing and total coverage is expected to be greater next year than this.

Livestock Production on TV Program In January

All aspects of swine, dairy and beef production will be covered on this year's popular television series "This Business of Farming". Scheduled for the week of January 6 to 10, the program will be carried at 10:30 each morning on prairie C.B.C.
and affiliated stations.

Although three of the programs were initially produced for Ontario, they have been adapted to cover western feeding practices by the Manitoba Department of Agriculture. The other two programs were produced by the C.B.C. and the Alberta and Saskatchewan Departments of Agriculture.

Both the Monday and Tuesday programs will feature swine production. On the first day viewers will see the latest breeding, feeding, housing, health and management ideas being used to cope with the growing competition for the market by other meats.

Tuesday's program "Gearing for Production" was produced by the C.B.C. and the Alberta Department of Agriculture.
Viewers will visit a seed stock producer and half a dozen commercial swine herds. Dr. H.
Fredeen, of the Lacombe Experimental Farm; Dr. W. Combs, of the University of Alberta, and Art Reddon of the Alberta Department of Agriculture will discuss such topics as record performance, selection and cross-breeding.

Wednesday's program will focus on dairy production. H.
Clapp, dairy cattle specialist with the Ontario Department of Agriculture will outline many of the changes that have taken place in dairy cattle breeding, feeding and management over the last 30 years. Information on buildings, mastitis control and the care of dairy cattle will also be included.

On Thursday and Friday the spotlight will be on beef cattle production. Produced in Winnipeg by the C.B.C. and the Saskatchewan Department of Agriculture, the first day of this section will feature the three main cost factors and how to cure them. Controversial speakers such as Dr. C.M. (Red) Williams, of the University of Saskatchewan, will also be seen on the program. He will discuss record of performance testing and crossbreeding.

On Friday western cattlemen will have an opportunity to learn how beef production is carried out by their counterparts in Ontario. Knowledge of methods and practices being used in that province is vital to the western cow-calf operator if he is to maintain his position as supplier of cattle for eastern feedlots.

A Mid-Winter Night's Dream

BY DR. HUGH MACLURE

It was the end of a long day, the room was warm and the turkey dinner had been up to its usual standard. I sat in the armchair and gazed vacantly at the heap of medical insurance forms which were waiting to be filled out. Beyond them on the table, a Christmas card attracted by attention. It was a picture of the Manger Scene, but for some reason it wouldn't come into focus. I was about to blame my bi-focals, as usual, when suddenly it all became clear. Unexpectedly clear, in fact. The shadows deepened, the Holy Light around the Mother and Child shone brighter, the animals stamped and snorted, and I began to hear the thin cry of a new born baby. There was a rich farmyard smell and the straw, which had looked such an ideal and comfortable bed in the picture, turned out to be like real straw - cold, prickly and damp in places. Mary looked exhausted and rather frightened. I wondered whether the delivery has been a difficult one for her. Presently the animals wandered away to a corner of the barn and I found myself following them. I felt no surprise when they began to converse in low voices, stamping, flicking their tails and chewing on the hay meanwhile. Joseph's donkey was the first to speak and throughout he was listened to with some respect by many of the beasts. It appeared that he was a direct descendant of Balaam's ass. They ignored me as I came nearer to eavesdrop.

DONKEY. 'Well I told you I was bringing God into the stable. Look at the wise men bowing down to worship Him'

1ST. SHEEP. 'Yes, they say He is the Lamb of God who will take away the sins of the world'

2ND SHEEP. 'Now our own lambs will be saved from the altar of sacrifice.'

1ST GOAT. 'Saved my hoof! Who ever saw a god with flies buzzing round him on a bed of straw?'

COW. 'What's wrong with straw? And why shouldn't flies buzz?'

2ND GOAT. (striking a dignified attitude) 'If that's what your God is like, I'll have nothing to do with Him, thank you.'

DONKEY. 'You have no choice. You have to take Him as He is, not as you imagine Him to be' HORSE. (Shaking his head) 'I'm not very bright I know, yet surely there is something different about this baby. I believe He really is God and will redeem us all.'

(I could not help having the feeling I had heard these animals before. Could it have been on a T.V. panel discussion?)

2ND GOAT. 'Which God? At the latest count there were eight hundred and ninety four official deities and a million or so unofficial ones'

DONKEY. 'We will always invent gods until we meet the Living One Himself. But who cares what we think? This Baby is what God thinks.'

COW. 'If He goes about claiming to be God they will kill Him and that will be the end of that.'

1ST GOAT. (Looking very wise) 'Isn't all this talk about God rather embarrassing in this day and age? I mean to say, the day will soon come when scientific discovery and modern thought will make all that sort of thing irrelevant surely. Not that I've anything against the idea of God of course.'

DONKEY. 'Why not?'

1ST GOAT. 'What do you mean, 'Why not?'

DONKEY. 'If there's no God, the idea of God can do nothing but foster ignorance and delusion surely?'

1ST GOAT. 'Oh I don't know. It might make people act more kindly towards each other, and towards us too.'

2ND GOAT. 'Nonsense! There is no God, the universe happened by accident and everything is absurd.'

DONKEY. 'Everything?'

2ND GOAT. 'Of course, Be logical.'

DONKEY. 'Then your statement is absurd too'

2ND GOAT. 'Now look here,...

Are you calling me stupid?'

DONKEY. 'No just absurd. Isn't that what you just said?'

HORSE. (shaking his head again) 'There must be something different about this Baby. They never argued like this about any other one.'

DONKEY. 'I, for one, am prepared to believe this Baby is God Himself come to earth for a special purpose which I admit I do not yet understand.'

1ST GOAT. to 2nd goat. 'These idiots make me sick. Let's hope that human beings at least will have more sense.'

COW. 'Don't worry, they'll murder Him and no one will remember Him in a hundred years, more's the pity.'

DONKEY. (placidly munching hay) 'They may kill Him alright, but that won't be the end of Him. God will work something out, you'll see.'

1ST GOAT. 'Holy Cow!'

COW. 'Yes?'

1ST GOAT. 'Not you, stupid!'

1ST SHEEP. 'How will He save His people from their sins once and for all? We poor sheep get slaughtered to achieve this every day of the week without much being accomplished.'

2ND GOAT. 'Those humans aren't going to like that piece of dogma one little bit! Saved by God because they are so good and clever...that's OK. But saved because they are so bad and sinful...wow! That bit will go over like a lead balloon! (To 1st. goat) 'Maybe we don't need to worry about them going for this god-business after all. It'll die a natural death probably in nineteen hundred years or so.'

1ST GOAT. 'Yes, of course. However we must hope that the Christmas myth stuff survives because it will be so good for business, and the pretty little animals and toy manger scenes delight the children.'

2ND GOAT. 'Yes, that's the idea - a beautiful story, and throw in the crazy reindeer with the red nose from time to time if the interest in the Christmas story rubs a bit thin. Anything to stop people thinking about a real God who does something. Can you think of anything more undignified? Taking such a personal interest in His world that He actually enters it in human form, bloodstained, caterwauling and blue in the face like any other mammal? How appalling if it was the literal truth!'

1ST GOAT. 'Don't talk like that, it sort of makes me nervous! Think of God as a vague spiritual influence like a sort of gas. It's much more civilized than this 'father in heaven' jazz! Besides, gases don't make demands on us. That miserable baby might.'

2ND GOAT. 'Yes, yes of course, God is dead. What a relief! And Jesus will be too in thirty years of so, and then we'll be left in peace.'

The two goats wandered away, but I saw them eyeing the baby nervously from time to time. The other animals had returned by now to the Holy Family. Joseph patted the donkey's neck and one of the sheep leaned forward hesitantly and licked the baby's little button nose. Mary looked better now and the fright in her eyes was turning to awe. She laid the Baby in the straw as Joseph pulled something from the folds of his robe. 'If you feel better now dear,' he said, 'Perhaps you can help me fill out this tax form of good old Caesar Augustus's. Why they make these things so complicated I'll never know.'

The medical form in my hand gradually came into focus and the Manger Scene became a picture on a Christmas card again. The confusion of the dream was gone, but not the Baby. The One who grew up to prophesy of a world of increasing war, fear and oppression, who gave His life a ransom for many, who rose up from the dead and who is coming again, lives on.

THE IMPLICATIONS OF CHRISTMAS

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him, should not perish but have everlasting life. For God sent the Son into the world, not to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through Him". John 3:16, 17 (R.S.V.).

To understand the implications of Christmas, we must understand the scriptural teaching regarding the coming of Christ. Only in God's inspired, inerrant Word do we find the true meaning of this festive season.

The first consideration from the above scripture is the fact that God "sent" Christ into the world, revealing the fact that Christ was existing before His miraculous virgin birth. John previously stated this fact; "In the beginning was the Word (Christ), and the Word was with God, and the Word was God... All things were made by Him and without Him was not anything made that was made." John 1:1, 3. Christ is God, and was already existent in equality with the Father at the time of creation. There is no beginning to the person of Christ, only to the humanity of Jesus Christ.

The second consideration from the above scripture is that the giving of His Son was the result of God's love. This thought is basic to Christmas - giving is to be the result of love. In this age, men seem to be controlled by subordinate motivations for giving, one of which is obligation. We give because it is expected of us, but not so with God. He was not obligated to give. On the contrary, because of His holiness He was obligated to punish, but in His love He gave His Son, and the obligation of punishment was fulfilled in Christ's death.

The third consideration from the above scripture is the purpose of God's Love; "That whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life". This is the "why" of Christmas. Let us note that the purpose is limited to and fulfilled in a select group, i.e. those who believe, or those who recognize their sin, recognize that Christ is God's given remedy for sin, and trust Christ alone to make them righteous before the Father.

Do you really understand the implications of Christmas, or are you just conforming to the norm? To know the "why" of Christmas, you must experience the salvation of God. Let this Christmas be filled with meaning and receive Christ as your Saviour.

Rev. Owen Isaacson.

CHRISTMAS JOY AND HOPE

When the angel announced the coming of the Christ to Bethlehem, he said, "I bring you great tidings of great joy." But perhaps hope expresses the meaning of Christmas this year better than joy. Both are intertwined. Both are gifts of God.

Joy is always connected with Christmas, of course. For children and for many others there will be joy this Christmas too. But hope somehow seems more important just now. The burst of joy the angels brought lifts our flagging spirits, but we need to translate it into a sturdy hope for the days ahead.

Christmas comes to the world of 1968 when it is seriously perplexed. We tremble with excitement at technological possibilities so vast that man can produce abundance, communicate instantly and travel quickly anywhere in the world, probe into space to reach the moon, and even transplant organs in the human body. But man has not learned to care enough about people to recognize human equality adequately, feed the hungry generously, or to balance freedom and responsibility sensibly.

Wars still engulf or threaten human peace. Poverty still stunts human growth and fulfillment. Apathy still characterizes human response to the goodness and judgement of God. Somehow, hope seems more important now than joy.

Man's greatest enemies in much of the world are no longer those of his environment or even those of disease or weather. Man has become a threat to himself. He fears what others can do to him politically, socially, economically, and personally.

This is why the meaning of Christmas this year seems best expressed by hope. They need hope in Vietnam. They need hope in the ghetto. They need hope where food is scant. They need hope who are alone and friendless and forgotten. They need hope who find life absurd or meaningless or empty. They need hope who see themselves as they really are.

Jesus Christ, born of Mary of Bethlehem, is the Saviour. He is Lord too. The Christmas message 2000 years ago was that God's living, visible, redemptive presence was with them. Now, His continuing, though invisible, presence, can give all men an indestructible hope. God, through Christ, has acted in the past. He still acts. He still saves. He still comes.

Our response this Christmas to the angelic message can be a burst of joy. If that joy is lasting will depend on whether it settles into a lasting hope in Christ. Hope for men everywhere. We have our part to play - no less than angels, shepherds, and wise men - in making hope real.

Rev. Dale D. Mohr

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

Two thousand years ago the Son of God came to earth as a baby in a manger. During His ministry on earth as a young man He gave His tender love and help to every person who would receive Him.

There were a few people of His generation who did listen to His offer of forgiveness, healing and love, but the majority refused to heed His call. They crucified Him instead. Little did they realize that Jesus spoke the truth. He was indeed God's Son!

Death and the grave could not hold Him. He rose from the dead and shortly after took His rightful place in heaven, at the side of His father. Since that day, Jesus has continued to offer to every member of the human race His help in this earthly life, and a promise of a glorious eternity in heaven.

His patience with humankind is amazing! His love is beyond description. He stands ready to forgive the sins of all who would invite Him into their hearts and lives! We often sing in our church a chorus that asks...

'Can you wonder, can you wonder? Can you wonder why it is I love Him so?'

When I think of all He's done, And for me the victory won, Can you wonder why it is I love Him so?'

This wonderful Jesus can place within your heart joy and happiness for the rest of your life. Why not let Him try?

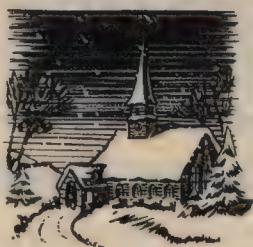

The pastor and congregation of the Pentecostal Tabernacle wish each one a blessed Christmas and a radiantly happy New Year.

Pastor Roy Kemp

EVANSBURG NEWS

Regardless of what the motorists say, this latest snowfall has really helped the countryside to look a lot more as if Christmas is coming. Several parties in the village have put up their Christmas decorations and the town is really looking bright at night.

The Kinsmen and Kinettes honored all the senior citizens last Sunday with a Christmas party held at the Legion Hall. Anyone of the senior citizens I have had occasion to talk to, say they had a very wonderful time, thanks to this hardworking group.

The gymkhana club held its regular meeting recently. Final plans for the club's Christmas party were made.

Karen Otto who has been on an extended tour of Europe is now home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Otto, for the Christmas holidays.

The group committee for the 1st Pembina Valley Cubs and Scouts held a meeting recently. Due to the fact that Const. Banasiak has been transferred, there is now no ACM. It was agreed that parents must be contacted and arrangements made so that every parent who has a boy or boys in Cubs will take a turn in helping the Cubmaster with the meetings. This will no doubt be done during the holidays as the Cubs will cease having pack meetings during the Christmas holidays. Ways and means of getting more funds were discussed as well as late registrations of the boys. The group committee plans to meet again before regular pack meetings start in the new year, so any parent concerned may phone or contact any member of the committee and find out the date if they wish to attend.

I was fortunate enough to have the opportunity of attending the Alberta Agricultural Societies' convention in Edmonton recently. Many matters regarding the smaller fairs were discussed as well as how the reduced government spending would effect these projects in the near future.

Elaine and Veronica Lewiski left recently for Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario. The girls are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Lewiski of Evansburg. Elaine has been employed for three years with the Canadian Bank of Commerce in Edmonton and has just received a transfer to their branch in Sault Ste. Marie. Veronica who has been working in Edmonton and at home, accompanied her sister on the journey and at the same time will spend the Christmas holidays with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Durica of Sault Ste. Marie. The girls have many relatives in that city, among them an uncle, Mrs. Lewiski's brother, who teaches in a Junior College. On her return to Alberta, Veronica plans to attend the second semester at Alberta College, for further study.

The recent snowfall has seen those who own motor toboggans out having lots of winter fun; and now that the ice is ready in the new arena, the skaters are having a wonderful time. And just think, no one has to wait for the rink to be shoveled off after every snowfall.

LIVESTOCK OUTLOOK

Large feed supplies could force the price of replacement cattle higher, according to the federal economists.

At the Federal-Provincial Agricultural Outlook Conference held at Ottawa recently, the economists predicted that cattle prices will remain above the export basis level.

As a result, a greater demand prevails for feeder cattle to be marketed out of feedlots.

Hog marketings are expected to decline for the first three quarters of 1969 and perhaps for the whole year.

Toronto prices this fall should be in the $32 to $33 range and they may not show any sizeable increase until the usual seasonal rise next summer.

Chicken marketings are expected to rise again next year, but the extent depends on the competitive supply of red meats, especially pork.

Turkey prices are expected to advance strongly prior to Christmas. Next year production should increase and lower feed costs are expected to continue.

Egg prices will likely rise, especially until August.

D. V. Highlights

BY MRS. EDITH DEBY

Fred Knut has gone to spend Christmas in his native Denmark.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Barry Thompson on the arrival of their second son last Saturday. The Leslie Oscars and the Vaughn Thompsons are the proud grandparents.

Grant Mastre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Mastre, has joined the staff of the Royal Bank in Medicine Hat.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Claude Albert is a patient in an Edmonton hospital and hope she is feeling well enough to be home for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Urchysyn and Leonard will spend Christmas in Calgary with the Bob Hunters.

A wedding of interest to many of us in Drayton Valley was solemnized in Trenton, Ontario, on November 30th when Linda Rosenberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Rosenberger, became the bride of Jan Hilderbrandt of the Royal Canadian Air Force. Jan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hilderbrandt of Endako, B.C.

Miss Edna Free will spend part of her Christmas holiday visiting friends in Vancouver. Edna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Free. She teaches school at Namao Air Force Base.

Funeral services were held in Edmonton on Thursday of last week for Mr. Otis Berryman who passed away at the age of eighty three years. Mr. Berryman is survived by his wife, two sons Alvan and Ivan, and four daughters, Doris, Elsie, Audrey and Lila. The Berrymans lived in this district for a number of years.

It is a disappointment that Mrs. Eric Jonzon will not be well enough to come home for Christmas. Mrs. Jonzon has been a patient in an Edmonton hospital for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hutchinson expect Mrs. Hutchinson's parents Mr. and Mrs. Ted Mastre of Dawson Creek, for the Christmas holiday. Dale will also be coming from Edmonton.

Have you noticed the very pretty diamond that Miss Peggy Bills is wearing these days on the third finger, left hand? Mr. Ray Whieting is the very fortunate young man.

It is good to see Bohdan Urchysyn around again after several days spent in hospital both here and in Edmonton.

Was delighted to hear from Mrs. Raymond Wade. The Wades live in Tripoli and Maureen goes to school in Switzerland. Next year she hopes to attend the University of Alberta.

Remember the Ray Clemons? They live in Burnaby now and like the coast very much. Lori will be remembered as one of our early library workers.

Friends of Mrs. Nellie Boxrud are much concerned by her illness.

So we have come to the end of another year. At this time I'd like to thank the people who have found something kind to say about this column. I am usually a bit surprised but always grateful. It has been fun to do.

Best Wishes for a Joyous Holiday Season and a Prosperous New Year.

Turkey Dinner Feature of Oil Wives Christmas Meeting

Christmas meeting of the Drayton Valley Oil Wives Club was held in the Cardium Room Monday, December 9th with eighty members and fifteen guests present. A delicious turkey supper with all the trimmings and accompanying wines was enjoyed by all.

The tables and wall decorations were beautiful and the ladies lovely in formal and informal gowns.

Joan Erickson handed out the rosters to all members and reports were heard from members of the executive. The 100 to 200 percent attendance pins were brought up and tabled until the January meeting.

For entertainment the St. Anthony's Choir, under the direction of Sister Florence, sang several carols which were enjoyed by all. Fran Henderson sang two songs accompanied by Jean Peterson.

An hilarious skit was presented by Carol Lawrence, followed by another number by Fran Henderson.

Recreation Round-Up

by Mike Gormley

It's Christmas time again. Before we knew it the lingering shadows of autumn had stretched into December, the month of ice and snow and mirth; the month of Christmas. The Spirit of Christmas is spreading over the world bringing with it the message of peace and good will toward men. Bringing this message of peace to a world torn asunder by wars, bloodshed, hatred and man's inhumanity to man. Each year at this time a glimmer of hope shines in the darkness. Hope for peace, hope for a better world of good will, yes, hope for the survival of humanity itself shines its strongest at this time of year. For a few brief days hostilities subside, strife and conflict abates, hatred and bitterness are withdrawn as peace and good will reign among men.

At this time, on behalf of the Drayton Valley Recreation Board and myself as Recreation Director, I would like to extend our fond wishes to all for a very Merry Christmas. May the true peace symbolic of this holy and happy season be with each and every one of you on Christmas Day and your family reunions be filled with joy and happiness. May your New Year be happy and bright, may your every desire be fulfilled and may 1969 be a very prosperous and successful year for this community and its residents.

We are looking forward to serve you with renewed enthusiasm during the coming year. We hope that our Recreation program will have continued success in the days ahead and that one and all may participate and benefit from the service that we are offering.

To all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Canadian Wheat Sales

Canadian wheat surpluses will likely continue to build next year.

Even if the Canadian Wheat Board realized its objectives of capturing 25 percent of the world wheat trade, production will be slightly higher than domestic and export use.

This year's poor harvesting weather damaged the quality of the crop. Production appears to be above average at about 650,000,000 bushels. Last year farmers harvested 593,000,000 bushels, bringing Canadian supplies to 1,170,000,000 bushels.

Winter Trucking Registrations Now Underway

Hon. Gordon E. Taylor, Alberta Minister of Highways, has announced that truck registration for winter work commenced Tuesday, December 3rd and that the necessary forms will be available on or after that date in the Highways Building, Edmonton, in the offices of the District Engineers at Medicine Hat, Red Deer, Lethbridge, Calgary, Edmonton, Vermilion, Athabasca, St. Paul, Peace River, and Grande Prairie. Truckers interested in participating in this program must register early and all registration will cease as of January 15th, 1969.

The program this winter is expected to be of limited volume and will be primarily in the more remote areas of the province. The nature of the work places much of the hauling in isolated areas requiring the trucker to have portable living accommodation. A number of the haul routes will be across muskeg terrain and out of some of the major river valleys. The operators must, therefore, be competent and have the trucks in good operating condition.

The registration forms must be completed in every detail, in duplicate, and must be completed by the trucker before a Commissioner of Oaths. Commissioners of Oaths are available at the points of registration and it is suggested that the most use be made of these people to expediate the registration. Both copies must be turned in at the point of registration or returned to the Department of Highways in Edmonton. After checking and tabulating of the forms in Edmonton one copy will be returned to the trucker which he must retain for presentation to the Engineer on a project to which he is assigned and answers the call for work.

In a physiology class the teacher said, "Joey, can you give a familiar example of the human body as it adapts itself to changed conditions?" "Yes ma'am," answered Joey. "My aunt gained 50 pounds last year, and her skin never cracked."
